

BETHEL PARK PUBLIC LIBRARY

POLICY NUMBER: 103

TITLE: Borrower Regulations

DATE ISSUED: June 2009

A. ELIGIBILITY

1. Any resident of Allegheny County or any resident of Pennsylvania with a home library that participates in the ACCESS PA program is eligible for a library card.
2. Only one library card is needed for use in any of the Allegheny County Library Association member libraries (see Appendix A).

B. REGISTRATION OF BORROWERS

1. Adults must present a photo I.D. with a current mailing address or a photo I.D. with a utility bill that shows a current mailing address to apply for a library card.
2. Children ages 5-17 may also apply for a library card. A parent or guardian must present proper I.D., as outlined above, and provide a signature taking responsibility for items borrowed on the child's card.
3. Library cards are issued at no charge to eligible patrons and are valid for three years.
4. Library cards are renewed without charge upon verification of patron address and telephone number.
5. Library cards may be used immediately upon registration.

C. LIBRARY CARD REPLACEMENT

1. Replacement cards will be issued at a cost of $2.00 per card.

D. BORROWER RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Borrowers are responsible for the following:
  - a. All library materials borrowed on their library card (regardless if materials were borrowed by the card holder or others)
  - b. All overdue fines incurred on their library cards by themselves or others
  - c. The replacement cost of lost or damaged library materials
  - d. Reporting name and/or address changes to the library
  - e. Reporting lost or stolen library cards
